

Danielle Heyman Feist

Danielle Heyman Feist has been teaching at Temple Rodef Shalom since 1995 and sharing music with our campers since 2007. She graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Secondary Education and Cognitive Studies, and earned her Masters Degree at George Mason University in English. Over her years as our Camp Songleader, she has experienced the ways that music and friendship are at the heart of our amazing camp. Most of all, Danielle is known for a leadership style that radiates creativity and positivity, and she continues to share her high energy with the campers and staff each summer!
