FACILITY RENTAL AGREEMENT

The Undersigned Applicant hereby applies for the use of Temple Rodef Shalom’s facilities as set forth above, and agrees to abide by and accepts all of the terms and conditions of the Temple Rodef Shalom Regulations Governing the Use of the Building Facilities, attached hereto as Attachment "A" and hereby incorporated by reference into this Facility Rental Agreement.

1. Applicant agrees by entering in this rental agreement to protect, indemnify, defend and hold harmless. Temple Rodef Shalom, Falls Church, VA and any officers, Board of Directors, members, employees and any agents of any of them, against any and all claims, losses or damages to persons or property, government charges or fines, and other cost arising out of or connected with the Event, except those claims arising out of the sole negligence or willful misconduct of the Temple. Applicant is free to obtain any additional excess insurance to guarantee its obligations to the Temple pursuant to this paragraph and in appropriate circumstances, as determined by TRS in its sole discretion, TRS may insist on applicant providing TRS with proof of adequate insurance as a condition to TRS execution of this Agreement.
2. If the Temple's obligation under this Agreement is not met for any reason beyond TRS control, TRS failure is completely excused and TRS may cancel this Agreement. The following is a partial list of events that, if they occur, would constitute reasons beyond TRS control: accidents, government restrictions on or interruptions in travel, Temple operations, the supply of goods and other supplies; act of war, and acts of G-d. If for any reason the reserved space is not available for the Event, TRS reserves the right to substitute other space of comparable quality.
