

Howard Stregack

Howard joined our congregation in July 2007 as our first Director of Membership Development. He was most recently at the DC JCC in Washington, DC where he jointly ran their Development office. His other non-profit and development work includes the JCC of Greater Washington, as well as several institutions in Seattle, including the Hope Heart Institute, Intiman Theater, and Seattle Hebrew Academy, with jobs ranging from ticketing and subscriptions to marketing and PR to grants and special events.
