TRS CONGREGATIONAL SONGBOOK

Take heart all of you who would like to participate in singing the hymns, prayers and responses during Shabbat and holiday services (but aren't sure of the words and/or music)...help is on the way! The Religious Practices Committee is planning to publish a "Congregational Songbook" to help our Temple members join in...and enjoy...our "service music" more. We would like to include your favorite hymns, prayers and responses. Won't you share your ideas with us? Please send, in the next two weeks, the name of (or a short list of) "service music" that you find especially meaningful, to "R.P.C. Songbook", Temple Rodef Shalom, 2100 Westmoreland Street, Falls Church, VA 22043. Thank you...we look forward to hearing from you!

Ellen Blalock, Religious Practices Chairman

GONE FISHING

This will be the last regular Bulletin until next September. Please note the deadline and mailing dates on the back of this Bulletin. If special announcements or other items of interest to the congregation are needed during the summer, the Temple office will arrange for separate mailings. As for us, we're "goin' fishing'." Have a good summer y'all.

SISTERHOOD

Our Annual Donor Luncheon was quite a success last month. We are very grateful to Anita Herman and Shirley Galant for a spectacular day.

Sisterhood is proud of our special stars who have worked unselfishly all year long on our varied projects. Those women who have earned DONOR status have worked at least 35 hours. Those earning PATRON status have worked at least 70 hours. How can we thank you all enough? What would our Temple be without our caring?

Set aside Wednesday, October 29th for a bus trip to shop at the West Virginia Outlet Center. We will have lunch at the Sheraton Martinsburg.

Please send your recipes for the next Sisterhood Cookbook to the office marked "Cookbook". Please type them if possible.

Many thanks to Iris Beckwith for providing lunches to senior citizens during the year. We appreciate all her efforts in making the lunches a success. Thanks to Ilse Bernstein, Susan Hale and Charlotte Chandler for assisting Iris for the last one of the year.

CHAI SOCIETY

On Sunday, June 8, 54 members of the CHAI Society joined together in the Temple Social Hall for a gourmet pot luck dinner. Thanks to the efforts of hostesses Zelda Ferris and Renee Goldman, the evening was an outstanding event.

The dinner was followed by the election of officers for 1986-87. Re-elected were Charles Stein (President), Sybil Lubin (Treasurer), Justin Dingfelder (Secretary), and newly elected as Vice President Catherine Arons. Judy Weiss will continue to chair the Sunshine Committee.

A review of the list of Temple members eligible for participation in the CHAI Society indicated that some had never responded to the initial invitation and others have not been heard from in about three years. It was, therefore, decided that our mailing list should be adjusted accordingly. In the future, CHAI Society correspondence will be sent only to those who have shown an interest by attending our functions or paying dues (or both). Those members of Temple Rodef Shalom affected by this change may rejoin us any time and be assured of a welcome reception by old friends.

Membership dues of $10 per person for 1986-87 (our year starts on July 1) should be sent to Sybil Lubin. Please make checks payable to CHAI Society, TRS.

A list of those who will have compiled 18 years of TRS membership as of October 15, 1986 will be published in the next Bulletin (September).

CALENDAR/DIRECTORY

The 1986-1987 Temple Directory and Calendar will be published soon. Last year we had a Professional and Business Directory in which people advertised their services or establishments. We want to expand these pages this year.

Many Temple members would like to patronize a fellow Temple member. This would be a service to each other as well as an opportunity to introduce your services to a growing population.

Do you have a business, service, an expertise or a commercial enterprise which you would like to advertise? If you work for someone, perhaps you would like to pass this along so they could avail themselves of this service or event take out an ad in the Roster.

Below is a sample of last year's Directory to refresh your memory of how names were listed. Please enclose your $15.00 deductible donation with the form and mail it back to the Temple. Each ad is a maximum of five lines. If you have any questions, please call Robbie Cohn at 532-2217.
