

Chapter 9

The Jews set up their defenses and fought off their attackers. The people who lived in the provinces celebrated their success on the 14th of Adar, and in Shushan they celebrated on the 15th. The Jewish nation decided to celebrate both of these days of Purim every year, with feasting, eating sweet treats and giving gifts to the poor.