

FAQ for 3/14/19

If you have been at the Temple in the last three weeks, you were probably astonished by the progress that has already been made! As the construction crews prepare the site for nearly 100 additional parking spots (hurray!) and an awesome new playground (in addition to “Central Park”), the terrain looks startlingly different. Keep watching, though, and you’ll soon start to see gorgeous additions to and growth on these clearings. In the meantime, be sure to express your appreciation to our amazing clergy and staff, as they face the non-trivial challenge of working amidst the chaos to make sure that TRS continues to provide fabulous opportunities for our spiritual, educational, and cultural needs. They deserve a loud Todah Rabah (thank you)!
