

FAQ for 5/2/19

Thanks to the work of the Security Task Force, we recently had a security assessment completed. With the guidance of our new Head of Security, Clyde Hilliard, we will be working to incorporate many of the resulting suggestions for making our buildings, both old and new, safe places to worship and gather.

Meanwhile, a fun, unintended consequence of moving the playground to what is now known as Central Park: it has become a popular location for socializing after Religious School on Sundays – a great place for parents to schmooze while the children play outside. Come join the fun!

If you have any questions about the building project, feel free to email us at bptf@templerodefshalom.org
