

SATURDAY

Student A

PASSING OF THE TORAH

One parent reads while the Torah is passed by a Jewish parent to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

_____(name)_____, As you receive this Torah, remember its teachings, its wisdom and its history. Let it guide you this day and all days. As you embrace it, so may you embrace what it has meant for the Jewish people over the generations. Judaism is history and hope, learning and laughter. We pray that the story of the Jewish people continues brightly with you, as you grow as a person and as a Jew. May you embrace the Torah your whole life!